

PowerPoint: Deaf-Blind People: Diversity and Commonality

Chapter 4.1.1

Photo Descriptions

Slide 6:

Table illustration: A table with four horizontal columns and four rows:

	Blind	Partially-Sighted Tunnel Vision	Sighted
Deaf	DB	DB	DEAF
Hard-of-Hearing	DB	DB	Hard-of-hearing
Hearing	BLIND	Low Vision	Hearing

Of the 9 labels, 4 are “deaf-blind”, including Deaf/Blind, Hard-of-Hearing/Blind, Deaf/Partially-Sighted/Tunnel Vision, and Hard-of-Hearing/Partially- Sighted/Tunnel Vision.

Slide 12:

Upper left photo description: Two DB people pose for the camera wearing wacky hats.

Upper middle photo description: A DB man at his job sweeps leftover materials off his worktable.

Upper right photo description: A DB woman stands outside at a park wearing a rain jacket and a baseball cap.

Lower left photo description: aj granda displays her mixed fabric artwork.

Lower middle photo description: A DB woman walks on a shoreline path with her SSP.

Lower right photo description: A gathering at a park near a lake of various DB people with their SSPs; with some standing and some sitting in shade.

Slide 13:

Upper left photo description: A sighted woman sits and observes.

Upper middle photo description: A group photo with students and DB persons.

Upper right photo description: A woman smiles.

Lower left photo description: A DB man smiles and poses front of a quilt hung on the wall.

Lower right photo description: A DB woman, at right, and her SSP smile at the camera.

Slide 21:

Left photo description: A DB man with a headband partially covering his dreadlocks sits and listens to a presentation.

Right photo description: A seated DB woman is conversing in ProTactile with a person not in the picture.

Slide 22:

Photo description: At right, a seated DB man listens to his SSP for information in a classroom.

Slide 23:

Photo description: A DB man wearing a sombrero hat smiles for the camera.

Slide 28:

Photo description: In a room, at left, a seated DB woman listens as her left hand lightly covers her seated SSP's right hand.

Slide 29:

Photo description: Seated at a dining table, at right a DB woman smiles for the camera, her right hand hovers the left hand of her seated SSP.

Slide 30:

Photo description: Various people observe and review two different Braille reading devices.

Slide 31:

Photo description: On a table, a person's hands inspect the Deaf-Blind Communicator, in an unzipped binder.

Slide 32:

Photo description: A DB woman stands outside on a sidewalk near shops. She has a fleece jacket, a backpack, a walking cane, and is holding a laminated yellow paper with the number, "7."

Caption: Photo credit: Seattle Lighthouse for the Blind, Horizons newsletter, Spring 2006

Slide 33:

Left photo description: A public transportation vehicle designed to provide mobility access; it is marked “ACCESS” on the side and back.

Right photo description: On a street, a public transit bus with the destination text above the driver’s window stating “15 VIA BALLARD”.

Slide 34:

Photo description: A DB man is working on a machine drill.

Slide 35:

Upper left photo description: At a restaurant table, at left a DB man has his right hand forming a “ILY” sign, with his two sighted friends at the left.

Lower left photo description: Seated on a couch, a DB man, at left, converses with a sighted friend.

Right photo description: At a dining table in a house, three DB people are seated and playing a game of UNO.

Caption: Community, Communication, and Touch

Slide 37:

Photo description: A close-up of tactile sign language.

Slide 38:

Right photo description: At right, a DB man and his friend/SSP, at left, both pose for the camera.