

PowerPoint: “Deaf-Blind Class”
The Seattle Lighthouse for the Blind
A Bonus Presentation
Photo Descriptions

Slide 6:

Left photo description: Standing volunteer interpreters in a classroom face towards the right, listening to the lead mentor, not visible.

Right photo description: The lead mentor, center, describes key terms in both ASL and English to volunteer interpreters.

Slide 7:

Right photo description: A binder is open showing both pages of DB persons’ headshots, along with a roster that lists matches with volunteer interpreters.

Slide 8:

Upper right photo description: Chairs are arranged in a triangular format.

Bottom right photo description: Window shades are pulled down in the classroom; various deaf-blind persons and volunteer interpreters are at the bottom..

Slide 9:

Photo description: A volunteer interpreter reading an outline.

Slide 10:

Photo description: The speaker is at the podium with the class coordinator to his right.

Slide 11:

Upper right photo description: A team of voice interpreters are seated.

Bottom right photo description: The DB class coordinator is on the stage; to his right is a volunteer SSP.

Slide 12:

Upper left photo description: A team of voice interpreters are seated.

Caption: Voice Team

Bottom left photo description: In the foreground, seated DB members face towards the stage where a copy signer stands facing the audience. In the center, a 'Close Vision' interpreter is seated facing the audience (circled in pink).

Caption: 'Close Vision' interpreter (seated in the center facing audience)

Right photo description: A 'copy signer' stands on a stage.

Caption: Copy Signer (platform)

Slide 13:

Photo description: A DB man is seated (center) in between his interpreter team. The interpreter at his left is working, while the interpreter at his right waits.

Slide 14:

Photo description: A woman stands and records the presentation with a video camera on a tripod.

Slide 15:

Right photo description: At the right, a small group (circled in pink) is watching an interpreter up close.

Slide 16:

Right photo description: The mentor at right monitors the student interpreter (center) working with a DB client, at left.

Slide 17:

Left photo description: Three women are seated in a triangular format conversing in Pro-Tactile Sign Language; DB woman (left), sighted woman (center), and sighted woman (right).

Right photo description: At left, three women are conversing while the DB class is in session.

Slide 18:

Photo description: New interpreters and the interpreter instructor are seated in a circular format debriefing after the class.